Worthy Blankets and Comforts

THE rough and ready way of judging blanket values by comparing weights. A seven-pound blanket is generally supposed to be worth more than a six-pound one. Perhaps.

Housekeepers know that blanket-worth lies in wear and warmth. This means weight of wool to an extent, certainly, but quality more than all else. Judging by weight is only half-judging, and the method, having the evil merit of a little truth, is particularly dangerous.

Blankets here are best, and quality questions are settled before you enter the store.

At $3.75 each-Covered with fine figured filled with pure odorless down;

We have the largest assortment that has ever been brought together, but there isn't one in the lot that isn't a leader of its kind. When you notice weights, note quality also; the price will always fit the two together, and will be less than the two together can elsewhere be found. BLANKETS DOWN COMFORTS

At $1.50 pair-The "Bethel;" for single beds: 54x74 in. At $250 pair—The "Swarthmore;" for single beds; 60x80 in.
At $4 pair—The "Wynnewood;" for single beds; 60x80 in. At $3 pair—The "Swa -The "Swarthmore;" for double beds; 70x80 in. At $4 pair—The "Physician's Favorite;"

for double beds; 72x84 in. Fourth avenue,

THE Humber at $40 is an incongruous and "impos-Humber Bicycles sible" condition of affairs, that will not last long nor come again. It is a trite truth that "the best is the cheapest," but you seldom find the best not only the cheapest but actually the lowest-priced.

The unusualness of the event, however, will not prevent your profiting by it. This is ideal wheeling weather, and here is an all-but ideal wheelbargain pat to the occasion.

Humber Roadsters, $40 Humber Tourist, $42 Lady Humbers, $45.

Four Lines from ONE of these is mentioned for the China Sale the last time,the bric-a-brac at half price. We opened the last case last night, and there's no duplication of such values as preparation.

Another of these four items is especially tempting. It is that of din-ner sets, in which one or two pieces are missing or slightly chipped. It doesn't interfere with the serviceability of the set, but it cuts the price in two.

DINNER SETS Haviland set at $12.50; was $25. Limoges set at $12.50; was $25. Haviland set at $20; was $40. Haviland set at $22.50; was $45. COMB AND BRUSH TRAYS Were 85c. to $4; now 45c. to $2. CHOP DISHES

Were $1.75 to $4; now 85c. to $2. In the bric-a-brac collection are pieces at 20c. and up to $10. Values just double.

Some New Styles FIRST showing they'd be $2.50 and $3.

At $10 each—Covered with plain or figured China silk; interlined; 6 feet square, PRICES range Men's Top-Coats from $10 to for Fall Wear $30. We do not carry the poor kinds,—they are too Quality? This is Wanamaker's. We have a very high standard in this Clothing Store, but it is set on goodness, not on price. "The best for the least" is the aim. Judge by these how we hit the mark:

expensive. Styles? Right, of course.

A covert cloth overcoat of very fine quality silk lined, at $12.

An unfinished black worsted overcoat, silk lined and silk faced to lapel edge, at $15. We'll match it against $20 and $22.50 coats. Covert cloth overcoats in new shades; silk lined; silk velvet collar; at $20. soond floor, Fourth avenue.

THIS Clothing Store Hints for Dressy Boys gives a great deal of attention to the needs of the little fellows. They know corthese except under the same conditions that produced these,—and that is a matter of months and months of the same two especially good offerings of stylish clothing:

Covert cloth top-coats, Fall weight, well made and trimmed; sizes 3 to 8 years;— the usual $5 coat—at $3.75 here.

Little Giant suits for boys 8 to 16 years; of fancy cheviots, sewed with silk; trousers with double seats and knees; handsome, durable suits for school wear; they're $5 a suit.

At $1.90, shoes that are good value regularly at $3 and $3.50. Of black waxed calfskin, welted and stitched soles, correct toe-shapes.

For the boys, a lot at $1.50 a pair. Worth while looking them over, for if your size is here, you save half their actual value.
